Equality, Inclusion & Disability Policy

Howe Green House School

This Policy also includes the Early Years Foundation Stage and Before and After School Provision

The staff and governors of Howe Green House School believe that we should provide a caring, positive, safe and stimulating environment, which promotes the intellectual, social, physical, and moral development of the individual child.

Access Statement

Howe Green House School is committed to a policy of equality, inclusion and accessibility in the delivery of its service; its dealing with the public and in the employment opportunities afforded to existing and future employees.

Howe Green House School is committed to ensuring that the facilities it provides allow pupils, visitors and employees to maximise their individual abilities and enjoy safe, and wherever possible, independent participation.

Direct Discrimination

Direct discrimination is where one person is treated less favourably than another is, has been or would be treated in a comparable situation on the grounds of gender, race, age, disability, faith and belief or sexual orientation e.g. employing a man instead of a woman when recruiting for a position within the school even though the woman is better qualified than the male candidate.

Indirect Discrimination

Indirect discrimination means applying a requirement or condition which adversely affects one group of people more than another, where the condition cannot be justified e.g. imposing working hours which effectively prevent single parents from working – which will usually affect a higher proportion of women than men.

Management will not discriminate in selection, recruitment, promotion, transfer or training procedures.

Discrimination

Howe Green House School endeavours to send a clear message that, regardless of people's backgrounds, discrimination against them will not be tolerated.

The school views diversity as a resource, as a strength and as an opportunity to help us improve and are committed to making our school and employment therein, equally accessible to everyone. We welcome the increasing diversity in our society and we will endeavour to meet the needs of our diverse society.

We are determined to make real improvements to the lives of everyone in our school community, regardless of race, colour and ethnicity, gender, disability, age, sexuality or their faith and belief

We aim to provide a fair and equal workplace and will investigate any discrimination that occurs in the workplace.

School employees have a responsibility not to discriminate against other members of the school community.

Age

We will not discriminate against anyone on account of their age.

Disability

We aim to encourage a positive image of disability and to comply with the Equality Act 2010. This applies to physical or mental disabilities and to people who have been diagnosed with a progressive illness such as cancer.

Gender Reassignment

We will not discriminate against people who choose to live in the opposite gender to the gender assigned to them at birth.

Pregnancy & Maternity

We will not discriminate against a women on grounds of pregnancy with regards to employment or entitlement to statutory maternity leave, or against a woman breastfeeding in a public place.

Marriage & Civil Partnership

We do not discriminate against employees who are married or in a civil partnership.

Race, Colour, Ethnicity and Nationality

We will make sure we do not discriminate against any individual or group either directly or indirectly because of race, ethnicity or colour.

Religion or Belief

We do not discriminate on account of a person's religion or belief. Whilst the school is non-denominational it has a Christian background. However the school actively encourages the children to learn about other religions and beliefs.

Sex

We do not discriminate on the grounds of a person's sex. Everyone is valued equally. Views and opinions of all members of our community are considered valid and this will be reflected throughout our school.

Sexual Orientation

We do not discriminate on account of a person's sexual orientation.

In the event that anyone believes they have been discriminated against there is a Howe Green House Complaints Procedure which should be followed. Copies are available from the Bursar's Office and on the school website.
